Children's Service Society of Wisconsin employees and volunteers will be "Helping Hands" at HuHot Mongolian Grill benefit event to raise money for Children's Service Society

KENOSHA, WIS. (7/22/2010) - Children's Service Society of Wisconsin's volunteers will lend a "Helping Hand" to raise money and have some fun at HuHot Mongolian Grill in Kenosha, Wis. HuHot's Helping Hands program donates a percentage of their monthly sales back to Children's Service Society.

What: Children's Service Society volunteers will showcase their grilling skills behind HuHot's 2,200 pound, 970,000 BTU grill to raise funds and promote the Child and Family Counseling program. Volunteers will stir-fry meals of fresh meats, seafood, noodles and vegetables with unique sauces in the hope of receiving generous tips for their cause. Other volunteers will assist HuHot's dining room staff.

When: 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Monday, Aug. 2.

Where: HuHot Mongolian Grill, 7214 Green Bay Road, Kenosha, Wis.

Children's Service Society's Child and Family Counseling program helps families become stronger by providing the skills to effectively deal with issues as they arise. Children's Service Society's therapists always have the client's best interest in mind and their ultimate goal is to create stronger bonds and empower families to thrive and grow.

Children's Service Society of Wisconsin is the state's largest private, not-for-profit provider of child welfare services. From offices and family resource centers throughout the state, Children's
