

Border Member for Children's Service Society of Wisconsin
Milwaukee Advisory Board

Children's Service Society of Wisconsin's mission is to build, sustain and enhance a nurturing environment for Wisconsin children.

Opportunity:

As member of Children's Service Society of Wisconsin's Advisory Board your role would be to help Children's Service Society achieve its mission by (1) becoming knowledgeable about the agency's clients and programs; (2) participating in activities that further the agency's goal; and (3) participating in fund development activities. Children's Service Society welcomes individuals who possess skills and experiences in planning, finance and budgeting, public relations and visibility campaigns, marketing, performance evaluations and training.

Board Member responsibilities:

1. Attend monthly Advisory Board meetings
2. Become actively involved in at least one Advisory Board Committee
3. Actively support Children's Service Society's financial development efforts through identification and cultivation of potential donors.
4. Attend the special event activity of the Milwaukee office each year and either bring guests or promote attendance by others.

Time Commitment:

Board members meet 8-10 times per year and on an as needed basis.

Length of Commitment:

Two- year term
