

HIPAA Security Rule Final Review – Please circle the correct answer.

- The goal of the HIPAA Security rule is to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of electronic PHI?

True    False

- Electronic Patient Health information includes:

- a. Name
- b. Social Security Number
- c. Medical Record
- d. All of the above

- Selecting a password is an essential step in securing electronic PHI?

True    False

- Examples of ways PHI can be electronically maintained or transmitted are:

- a. Computers
- b. CDs
- c. Medical Devices
- d. All of the above

- To have removable media destroyed it should be taken to the IS Help Desk for secure disposal or to be shredded?

True    False

- Which of the following is a way to guard against computer viruses?

- a. Do not open suspicious email or email attachments.
- b. Do not change installed settings on your computer.
- c. Do not install software programs on your computer.
- d. All of the above

- It is okay if you download a screen saver you received from your co-worker?

True    False

- When creating an email, PHI should never be placed in the subject line?

True    False

- The CHHS Information System Security Officer is:

- a. Steve Piehl
- b. Tom Twinem
- c. Chuck Klawans
- d. Denise McDowell

- Failure to comply with HIPAA security rules could result in which of the following?

- a. Corrective Action
- b. Civil Penalties
- c. Criminal Penalties
- d. All of the above

HIPAA Security Rule Acknowledgement Form

I acknowledge that I read the HIPAA Security Regulations and understand my role in making sure electronic patient health information is protected.

I agree to adhere to and follow all CHHS policies and procedures regarding the HIPAA Security Rule regulations and I understand that any violation of these policies and procedures could result in immediate dismissal, and possible criminal and civil penalties.

---

First Name, Middle Initial, Last Name (please print)

Date

---

Signature

Date