Activity Resource Guide

Things to do, where to go and other outside resources available while at Children's Hospital of Wisconsin

Looking for something to do? Trying to find where to get something special? Use this guide to find what you're looking for! For more information, visit any Welcome Center in the hospital or Clinics Building. Or stop in The Daniel M. Soref Family Resource Center on the first floor of the hospital.

Take a walk on the wild side at the Milwaukee County Zoo at 10001 W. Bluemound Road. The 200-acre park features 2,500 animals representing 300 species. For more information, call the Milwaukee County Zoo at (414) 771-5500.

Take a hike

Catch a breath of fresh air while walking the sidewalks around the Milwaukee Regional Medical Center. Or visit a nearby park. Stop by a welcome center or The Daniel M. Soref Family Resource Center for more information about a walking route that fits your schedule.

Go shopping

Visit the Children's Hospital Gift Shop on the first floor of the hospital. If you're looking for more, see listings in this guide for local malls and specialty shops.

Grab a cup of coffee

Craving some caffeine? Visit the West Cafe on the first floor of the hospital. If you want to get out, look inside for places to get that cup your craving!

Get lost in a book

Check out the resource library in Daniel M. Soref Family Resource Center on the first floor of the hospital. For other types of books visit the Wauwatosa Public Library, 7635 W. North Ave. or one of the other bookstores listed in this guide.

Try a tasty treat

Are your taste buds craving a tasty frozen treat? Go to Gilles Frozen Custard in Wauwatosa, Milwaukee's oldest fast-food restaurant featuring sundaes, milkshakes, malts and sodas. If you can't get away, Gilles delivers. Look inside for information on Gilles and other frozen custard options.

Wish upon a star

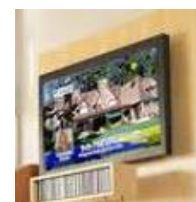

The top level of the visitor's parking structure has amazing views of the night sky. To get there, take the skywalk to the visitor's parking structure. Take the parking structure's elevator to level five.

Pack a picnic

Want to enjoy the great outdoors? Call Nutritional Services at (414) 266-2240 to order a meal to go. You can enjoy your meal at one of the local parks.

Pick a flick

Visit The Daniel M. Soref Family Resource Center to borrow DVD movies or PlayStation3 games for use in the hospital. If you are looking for more, a listing of local movie theaters and video rental stores are here at your fingertips.

Other services

Look inside for more services including fast food, florists, hair care, banks and much more!

Wisconsin State Fair Park offers more activities and events than you could ever imagine. There is always something entertaining or educational going on for you and your family to do and see.

Here's a sampling of events at the Fair grounds:

- Rummage-O-Rama
- Craft Fair USA
- Harvest Fair (September)
- Badgerland 200 (at the Milwaukee Mile)
- And don't forget the...

Wisconsin State Fair

The fair starts the first Thursday in August and runs for 11 days. Watch sheep get sheared; check out the cows, pigs and other barnyard animals. Plenty of food, rides in the midway and catch some music. Enjoy a fabulous creampuff!

For more information on the fair park events visit: www.wistatefair.com

Wednesday Night Live at State Fair Park - every Wednesday evening starting in June going through August. Enjoy free music starting at 6:30 p.m. at the Budweiser Pavilion. Food and beverages are available for sale.

Local Church Festivals

Church festivals are a Milwaukee tradition. Some are big, some are small; all church festivals offer loads of family fun.

<http://milwaukee.about.com/od/festivals/a/churchfestival.htm>

Downtown / Lakefront Area

All events listed charge admission except where noted. Check the Web sites for more information.

RiverSplash

First weekend in June in Downtown Milwaukee along the river. This festival marks the official start of summer in Milwaukee.

Lakefront Festival of the Arts

Usually the third weekend in June. Held right in front of the Calatrava expansion to the Milwaukee Art Museum, this festival features the work of over 160 national artists. Get free admission to the Museum with a paid festival admission.

www.lfoa.mam.org

Polish Fest

Usually the fourth weekend in June at Henry Maier Festival Park. Polish food, culture, and entertainment.

<http://www.polishfest.org>

Summerfest

The Big Gig starts the last Thursday in June and runs 11 days at Henry Maier Festival Park. Featuring both top name entertainers and rising stars on 13 stages. Summerfest also offers a wide variety of food, children's activities, amusement park rides, water shows, and shopping.

www.summerfest.com

Bastille Days

July - the weekend after the end of Summerfest. Storm the Bastille, enjoy une crepe, visit a replica of the Eiffel Tower and more. Held in the streets near Cathedral Square; free.

www.easttown.com

Festa Italiana

Starts the Thursday following Bastille Days. Really great food and entertainment. Spectacular fireworks at Henry Maier Festival Park.

www.festaitaliana.com

German Fest

This festival runs the third or fourth weekend in July. Schnitzel, lederhosen, sheephead, beer and more. Held at Henry Maier Festival Park.

www.germanfest.com

African World Fest

First weekend in August at Henry Maier Festival Park. Celebrates African and African-American culture with a weekend of food, dancing, entertainment and more.

www.africanworldfestival-milwaukee.com

Arab World Fest

Second weekend in August at Henry Maier Festival Park. The Arab World Fest celebrates Middle Eastern culture with food, entertainment, dancing and more.

www.arabworldfest.com

Festivals (Continued)

Irish Fest

Third weekend in August at Henry Maier Festival Park. The world's largest Irish cultural festival. Learn to play the tin whistle, eat hearty stew and watch the Trinity Dancers. You can enter your child in the red hair contest and more.

www.irishfest.com

Mexican Fiesta

Fourth weekend in August. Plenty of food, mariachi and fiesta for all. What began as a small celebration in the Walker's Point neighborhood has grown to the Midwest's largest Mexican festival. Held at Henry Maier Festival Park.

www.mexicanfiesta.org

Indian Summer

The weekend after Labor day at Henry Maier Festival Park. Celebrating both contemporary and traditional Native American culture, this festival showcases Native American artists and entertainers. Don't miss the competition Pow-Wow.

www.indiansummer.org

Festival Flyers - Take the Bus to Milwaukee Festivals

Take the Park and Rides to Summerfest, Festa Italiana, Irish Fest and German Fest, too. It's so nice not to deal with the mass exodus after these festivals and avoid the high parking rates.

For all major festivals, there is a shuttle running down Wisconsin Avenue every 15 minutes. Look for the Summerfest smiley-face logo at bus stops about every two blocks on Wisconsin from 10th Street down to the festival grounds. Festivals include Polish Fest, Summerfest, Festa Italiana, German Fest, African World Festival, Arab World Fest, Irish Fest, Mexican Fiesta and Indian Summer.
