Family Events

Raising a Reader
Thursday, October 10th: 6:00 pm—7:30 pm

Bring the kids to this fun and motivating workshop to encourage reading at the youngest of ages. There will be free books and activities that you will be able to take home. This workshop will include tips and activities to make reading fun.

Held at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church
502 W. McMillan St., Marshfield

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, REBUILD!
Thursday, November 7th 6:00 pm—7:30 pm

Bring the entire family out for a night of building with recyclables from around the house. Each family will have access to recyclables provided by the Family Resource Center. Build your own beautiful creation to take home with you.

Held at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church
502 W. McMillan St., Marshfield

Ask the Expert

Digging up Roots from the Family Tree
Thursday, September 12th 5:30 pm—7:00 pm
Presented by: Karla Leppen

Children ages 5 and up come ready to pick up a magnifying glass and explore your family history! Work alongside your parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, or the special caregiver in your life while engaging in an evening of hands-on learning activities. All families can enjoy learning about who they are and how they’re connected.

Play and Learn

Tuesdays 9:30 a.m.-11:00 a.m.
Good Shepherd Lutheran Church
502 W. McMillan St., Marshfield

Parents and other caregivers are a child’s first and most important teachers. Take this opportunity to connect with others who have young children. Participate in early learning activities that enhance your child’s development and promote school readiness. We have great ideas for playing and learning.

Warmline
