Life Skills Training - Offered to Latino boys and girls aged 11-16, this curriculum, utilized during the summer months at the center, is a substance abuse and violence prevention program. Covers drug resistance skills, self-image, social skills while enhancing cognitive and behavioral competency to reduce and prevent a variety of health risk behaviors.

Milwaukee Violence Free Zone - Targets youth who are considered to be “chronic disruptors” at South Division, Bay View, Madison and Bradley Tech High Schools. MVFZ staff cooperate with school social workers, faculty and safety aides to prevent the escalation of the youths’ behavior into more high-risk/illegal activities and, therefore, increasing the likelihood that youth will graduate from high school, get jobs, and eventually sustain their own healthy families.

Young Professionals Academy - Students are referred by MVFZ Youth Advisors and are guided through comprehensive training in Employability, Job Retention & Life Skills.

Creating Lasting Family Connections - Adapted to Latino youth, this course is presented during the school day at James Madison Academic Campus and focuses on improving communication with parents and increasing the use of community resources to solve problems.

¡Soy Unica! ¡Soy Latina! (“I’m Unique! I’m a Latin Girl!”), designed by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration as a bilingual initiative to help Latina girls ages 9-14 to gain the self-esteem needed to make healthy choices, learn refusal skills, and resist negative social pressures. This curriculum is utilized at the center not only during the summer months but also year round.

Summer Programming gives youth and teens in the target neighborhood a safe place to go during the summer months, with a wide array of fun, safe, academic, recreational, and cultural activities.

Homework Club (HWC)—After-school program where volunteer tutors establish intentional relationships with individual students during the school year. Our Next Generation mentors and tutors have an ongoing relationship not only with a particular student but also with the student’s family and teachers. Homework Club participants come from 10-15 Milwaukee public, private and charter schools and are mentored throughout their elementary years.

Outbound Learning—With similar goals as the Homework Club, Outbound Learning has been instituted in partnership with the University School of Milwaukee, ManpowerGroup, University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, Milwaukee School of Engineering and our inter-generational site, Saint John’s on the Lake. Four days per week elementary and middle school students participate in mentoring and academic enrichment programming with Academic Mentors from these partner sites.

High School Connection (HSC)—After school and summer program provides youth ages 13-17 with a structured curriculum and safe, supervised environment. Helps youth with career planning, soft-skills, college exploration and community stewardship. The program also helps to address the critical social issues facing kids in the neighborhood: peer pressure, teen pregnancy prevention, social justice, conflict resolution and crime and substance abuse prevention. The program provides tutoring for academic achievement and ACT test preparation. HSC students who demonstrate positive academic and personal achievement can apply for the Leadership Academy.

Leadership Academy—HSC students receive stipends for tutoring Homework Club students. In addition, scholarships for summer pre-college programs and advanced learning after high school - whether university, technical school or apprenticeship training - are available to active participants.

Also has CLCs at Westside Academy I & II, and Summer Programs for youth from K-12th

Pinnacles for Youth, Inc…………………………………………………..(414) 326-0668
P.O. Box 170554, Milwaukee, WI 53217

Academic Assist—Offers tutoring, homework assistance, and life skill lessons to youth on select Saturdays throughout the year. Each student’s academic progress is monitored throughout the year to help them realize their full academic potential in the classroom.

Mentoring Program—Mentors and leaders from various colleges and job fields come and speak to the youths. They give them firsthand experiences of what it will take to realize their professional dreams.

Sports—The sports teams are used to reinforce our values of sportsmanship, teamwork and academics. We promote hard work and dedication and offer a fundamental approach to the game of basketball. Every student-athlete must attend study hall before they can participate in any game or practice.

Recreational, Educational, and Cultural Field Trips—Trips take place throughout the year to enhance the educational awareness and to broaden the horizons of our student-athletes.

Risen Savior Church & Community Center………………….(414) 354-7320
Risen Savior Lutheran Church, 9550 W. Brown Deer Rd, Milwaukee, WI 53224
Our new Community Center is now open and is the home to our Teen Haven program.
Teen Haven - offered to teenagers throughout the area and provides them with a safe place to hang out, get some help with homework, and enjoy a hot meal after school and during the summer months. Teen Haven meets Tuesdays from 5:30-8:00pm.

Youth Haven - is a welcome place where kids ages 6-12 can learn, grow and play in a setting of Christian love. It includes Bible stories, crafts, songs, games, a hot meal and, of course, FUN! Teens from the community also serve as counselors and helpers! Mon-Fri 4:30-6:30pm.

Urban Explorers - Summer Camping Experience

Reading Club - The program is designed to be fun and educational. It determines student reading levels, supplies appropriate lists from which children can choose a book to download on their eReaders, and provides comprehension quizzes (taken via computer) from which teachers can determine and address the specific needs of each child. Mon-Thur 3:45-4:45pm.

Spanish Class - After-school and summer Spanish classes are offered to all community youth in grades 2-5. The goal is that the children acquire the speaking, reading and writing skills that one would expect of children their age in Spanish speaking countries. Mon, Wed, Thurs 5-5:45pm.

Let's Talk Girls’ Talk - is a program that provides teen-aged girls the opportunity to discuss challenges that young women their age frequently encounter, and then determine how to resolve them in a Christian manner.
