Advanced practice provider poster session
Best Practices in Pediatrics Winter 2017

Children’s Specialty Group and Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin host Best Practices in Pediatrics CME conferences, providing the latest information about diseases and issues encountered in pediatric practices. More than 400 pediatricians, family practice physicians, nurse practitioners and physician assistants from across Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota and Iowa attend.

Important dates
• Monday, Dec. 12 – Deadline to submit abstract
• Monday, Jan. 2 – Abstract approval to be communicated to submitting authors
• Monday, Feb. 6 – Deadline for final poster to be sent to CSG office for printing

Purpose
Provide a forum for presentations on QI, clinical research or case reports by advanced practice providers. Abstracts must have either a pediatric or adolescent medicine focus with clinical applicability and interest or evidence-based practice. This includes, but is not limited to the following:
• Applicable QI project poster
• Clinical research poster
• Case study poster
• Clinical research presented at a past conference or that could be presented at a future meeting

Why present
• Posters will be printed free of charge
• Poster presentations will enhance your CV
• Network and connect with others in your field
• Gain valuable experience and feedback

Poster session schedule
Date authors must be available for discussion:
Friday, March 10 | 4:15 - 5:30 p.m.

It is required that you be available for the poster session to discuss your research with conference attendees. CSG staff will bring your posters to and from the conference. Posters will be returned to you following the conference. Posters will be on display during the entire conference to ensure attendees have ample time for review and evaluation. Conference attendees that complete an evaluation for viewing posters will receive CME credit. Following the conference, evaluations will be summarized and shared with each author.

Providers
